

Diverse Perspectives

DIRECTIONS. Read the story. Answer the questions.

1. Describe the main character.
2. Where does the main character live?
3. What is their cultural background?
4. What is the main character's problem in the story?
5. What is the main character's perspective on this problem? Why?
6. How does this character's family, background, culture, etc. contribute to their perspective?
7. What would your perspective on this problem be? Why?
8. Is your perspective similar or different from the main character's?