

Losing Someone You Love

When someone you love dies, many changes take place in your life. What are some things that have changed in your life?

What are some things that haven't changed since the person you love died?

Draw a picture of your loved one inside the heart. The love you feel for this person will never go away. You can keep this love inside your heart forever. Whenever you feel sad, remember the love that you shared and still share with this person.
