Story Structure

Summarize the story. Use the symbols provided to indicate where in your summary each part of the story appears. Use the back of this page if you need more space.

The main character is introduced:

The setting is introduced or described:

The main conflict is introduced:
The rising action of the story takes place:

The climax of the story takes place:

The falling action of the story takes place:

© 15Worksheets.com