

ANSWERS

1. A dangling modifier is an introductory word or words that do not refer logically to the noun or pronoun that follows it.
2. They make the sentence illogical and can cause confusion.
3. - 6. Answers will vary.