

Name _____ Grief

Coping with Changes

When someone that you love dies, sometimes many things in your life change. Think about some of the things that have changed in your life. Ask your counselor to help you think of positive ways that you can cope with these changes.

One way my life will be different is

I can cope with this change by

--	--

--	--

--	--

