

Name _____ Analogies

Analogies

When you make an analogy, you compare things in order to explain or clarify something. Analogies show relationships between a pair of things. The comparison in an analogy takes the form _____ is to _____ as _____ is to _____ .

Analogies can be used to express many different kinds of relationships. Read each analogy below. What kind of relationship is it expressing? Choose from the Word Box.

Synonym	Location	Purpose	Antonym
Important Characteristic	Cause-Effect	Part-Whole	Member of a Group

1. fire is to hot as snow is to cold. _____
2. hunger is to eat as thirst is to drink. _____
3. cold is to freezing as fast is to speeding. _____
4. up is to down as in is to out. _____
5. cell is to organism as spoke is to wheel. _____
6. dog is to canine as cat is to feline. _____
7. France is to Europe as Texas is to the U.S. _____
8. stove is to cook as car is to drive. _____