Create Your Cabinet

The president's cabinet is made up of high-ranking government officials who each give the president special advice in their areas of expertise. There are 15 different federal departments and agencies, each one responsible for running a different aspect of the country, like agriculture, education, transportation, etc. The leader of each of these 15 agencies form the president's cabinet.

DIRECTIONS: Imagine you are the new president. Who would you choose to be in your cabinet? Identify someone you know to fill each role and why they would be a good choice.
