

Name _____ Collocation

Collocation

DIRECTIONS: Some words in English are collocated so frequently that when you use a different combination of words, it sounds awkward or clunky. Read each set of phrases. Circle the one that uses the correct collocation.

catch a cold

found a cold

make an order

place an order

tell a lie

talk a lie

make a mistake

do a mistake

become ready

get ready

study hard

study deep

of late

of recent place attention

pay attention

lend a hand

loan a hand

take a chance

grab a chance

have a fit

pitch a fit