

Capitol Hill

When he began to design the new U.S. Capitol City in 1791, Pierre (Peter) Charles L'Enfant, described the crest of the hill where he located the U.S. Capitol Building as a "pedestal waiting for a monument." What does this quote mean to you? Do you think the U.S. Capitol Building is a monument? If so, a monument to what? If not, why not??
