

Name _____ Analogies

Analogies

When you make an analogy, you compare to things in order to explain or clarify something. Analogies show relationships between a pair of things. The comparison in an analogy takes the form _____ is to _____ as _____ is to _____ .

Analogies can be used to express many different kinds of relationships. Some of the relationships that can be expressed through analogy are listed below. Complete each type of analogy.

1. Function tub is to bath as

2. Homonym board is to bored as

3. Rhyme fed is to sled as

4. Source to Object garden is to vegetables as

5. Type/Kind beef is to meat as

6. Age or Size puppy is to dog as