

Story Elements

In a story, multiple elements work together to create an experience for the reader. The main elements of a story are identified below. Briefly describe how each appears in the story you are reading. Then write a brief paragraph about how they work together in the story.

How do all of the elements work together in this story?
