

Name _____ Deciding What Sources to Use

Connect It to Your Topic

DIRECTIONS: One way to decide what sources to use in your research paper is to make sure that you can connect the information in you got from your source to your topic. Use the organizer below to quickly assess whether or not you should use a source when writing your paper.

My research question/topic: _____

Source information: _____

Key Points from Source	How is this information related to my topic/research question?
Do I have questions about this source? Are there limitations to this information?	