Compare and Contrast

When you compare two things, you look for what is the same. When you contrast them, you look for things that are different. Writers use signal words to let the reader know whether they are comparing things or contrasting them.

DIRECTIONS: Think about two animals that you like. Write a paragraph that both compares and contrasts the two animals. Use signal words.

© 15Worksheets.com