Name _____ Anaphora

Rhetorical Devices: Anaphora

Anaphora is a rhetorical device consisting of repetition of a word or phrase at the beginning of successive phrases, clauses, or sentences in order to create emphasis. The purpose of anaphora is to appeal to the emotions of the audience in order to persuade, inspire, motivate and encourage them

DIRECTIONS: Imagine you are class valedictorian, and you will be speaking to your classmates and their families and friends at graduation. What is one key idea that you would like for them to take away from your speech? Write a short passage conveying that key idea. Use anaphora.
