Name _____ George Washington

George Washington

DIRECTIONS: George Washington was the only U.S. president who did not represent a political party. Washington was opposed to political parties, and in his farewell address when he stepped down from the presidency, he cautioned the nation not to divide themselves into political parties. Do you think this was sound advice? Explain.

© 15Worksheets.com