

Citing Sources

When writing an academic essay, it is necessary to cite the sources of the information that you use as evidence to support your thesis. Use the templates below to ensure you collect all the information you will need about each sources for your citation and/or bibliography.

To Cite a Print Book with One Author (citing the entire book)

_____, _____
 Author, last name first name

 Title in italics

_____: _____, _____ . Print.
 Place of publication (city): Publisher Year

Write the Citation:

To Cite a Work (such as a chapter in a book) in an Anthology

_____, _____
 Author, last name first name

_____, _____
 Title of Work in Quotation Marks Title in italics

_____: _____, _____, _____ . Print.
 Place of publication (city) Publisher Year Page #s

Write the Citation:

Name _____ Academic Essay

To Cite a Website or Electronic Encyclopedia

_____, _____
Author, last name first name

_____, _____
Title of Article in Quotation Marks Site Title in italics

_____, _____, _____, _____, _____
Volume Number and Number Sponsor Date Posted/Updated

_____, _____
Access Date. URL in angled brackets.

Write the Citation:

To Cite a Print Periodical Article from a Website

_____, _____
Author of Article (if given), last name first name

_____, _____
Title of Article in Quotation Marks Title of Periodical in italics

_____, _____, _____, _____, _____
Volume Number and Number. Date of Periodical (Day Month Year). URL

Write the Citation:

