

Paragraph Review

TRUE OR FALSE

1. A paragraph is always at least five sentences long. _____
2. A paragraph must have a topic sentence. _____
3. The topic sentence introduces the reader to what the paragraph is about. _____
4. Supporting details link paragraphs together. _____
5. Transition words are used to support a claim in a paragraph. _____
6. A concluding sentence should sum up the main points of the paragraph. _____
7. The structure of a paragraph is always the same, no matter what kind of writing you are doing. _____
8. Supporting sentences give information or evidence about the author's claim. _____
9. Individual paragraphs are not important; it is the work as a whole that counts. _____