

Name _____ Resolution

Resolution

DIRECTIONS: Answer each question true or false.

TRUE OR FALSE

1. The resolution is the part of a story in which the conflict is resolved.

2. The resolution of a story takes place right before the climax.

3. Resolution is a synonym for denouement.

4. The resolution is the last of the five main elements of plot to occur in a story.

5. Without a resolution, a story might leave a reader confused or unsatisfied.

6. A good resolution emphasizes the central theme of a story.

7. The resolution is the most dramatic and exciting part of a story.
