

Things That Are Usually True

You use "Conditionals Type 0" to talk about something that is always true or usually true. For example:

If you plant flowers, you will attract insects.

If you stay up all night, you will be tired in the morning.

DIRECTIONS: Match the beginnings and ends of the sentences.

- |                                     |  |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| ___ 1. If you work hard             | A you will gain weight                     |
| ___ 2. A dog will bark              | B you will die                             |
| ___ 3. If you eat too many calories | C it will melt                             |
| ___ 4. If you live in the far North | D you will succeed                         |
| ___ 5. If you don't eat             | E you can learn to do anything             |
| ___ 6. If a baby is crying          | F If they want to warn you about something |
| ___ 7. If you leave ice out         | G it needs something                       |
| ___ 8. If you can read . . .        | H you will have cold weather               |