

Name _____ Forgiveness

Forgiveness

Write a letter of forgiveness to someone who has hurt you. You can give the letter to the other person, or you can keep it for yourself as a reminder that in your heart, you have forgiven them.

A large, decorative red border frames the central area of the page. Inside this border, a solid red heart is positioned on the left side. The rest of the space within the border is blank, intended for writing a letter of forgiveness.
