

Ellie Grows Up

Read the story. Then number the pictures in order from 1 to 6.

Ellie was always active and athletic. When she was in high school, she did karate. After high school, she worked for awhile as a yoga instructor. Then Ellie learned how to play golf, and she got very good at it. She played competitive golf for several years. When she was twenty-four, Ellie decided to join the military because they would pay for her to go to college. When she got out of the military, Ellie earned her college degree. Now she doesn't do any sports at all. She works as an eye doctor!
