

Name _____ Participles

Participles

A participle is a verb form that can be used as an adjective.

The inspiring designer is always doing something new.

Her inspired designs please everyone who sees them.

DIRECTIONS: Underline the participle in each sentence.

1. The interested students listened closely.
2. The exciting event distracted everybody.
3. The alarming news turned out to not be true.
4. Several frustrated students have dropped the class.
5. The exhilarated women gazed down from the mountaintop.
6. Reeling, the woman fainted.
7. It was a terrifying possibility.
8. I found the situation paralyzing.
9. The articulated idea was easy to grasp.
10. His repeated attempts to get my attention are annoying.
11. The satisfied customers left the store happy.
12. The confusing directions were not helpful.