

ANSWERS

Plot is what happens in the story. It includes conflict and resolution.

Setting is where the story takes place.

Characters are the people in the story, but characters can also be animals, objects, etc.

Theme is the main message of the story.

Narrative perspective refers to who tells the story.