

ANSWERS

1. first person
2. a man who killed the old man who lived with him
3. from his personal experience
4. possibly he is being interrogated after being arrested
5. the idea to kill the old man just entered his head and would not go away
6. If it were told from a different point of view, it would lose some of the ambiguity that contributes to the tension of the story.