

Name _____ Deciding What Sources to Use

Should I Use This Source?

Directions: Any source you uses in your research has to be both credible and appropriate to your research question. You can quickly assess whether or not a particular source is credible and appropriate by answering a few questions during the research process. Use this organizer to assess multiple sources alongside each other.

My Research Question: _____

Source	Does it relate to my topic?	How will I use it?	Who's the author? Are they an expert?	What's the purpose of the text?	What was the publication process?
