Name	Synthesi
------	----------

Step-by-Step Synthesis

Synthesizing as you read will help you understand what you are reading.

Before you start to read, collect your thoughts.

As you begin to read, identify the main idea.

Write down what you have read in a few words.

Write down what you have learned from what you read.

After reflection, write down how your thinking has changed based on what you read.

