

ANSWERS

1. The narrator is not a character in the story, and the reader can know what all the characters do, say, see, feel, or think.
2. Will vary.
3. Will vary.
4. The author cannot get too in depth with any one character without making the story very long.
5. The author can tell multiple stories at one time; the reader can now things that the characters do not.