

ANSWERS

Exposition: Nick Carraway has moved to New York. He goes to visit his cousin Daisy and her husband. He meets a family golfer, Jordan Baker there.

Rising Action: Tom Buchanan is having an affair with Myrtle Wilson.

Gatsby's past and relationship with Daisy is revealed. Nick reunites them, and they begin an affair.

Climax: The affairs are suspected and/or revealed. Daisy hits Myrtle with the car and kills her.

Falling Action: George kills Gatsby and himself, thinking Gatsby was Myrtle's lover.

Resolution: Nick is upset by Daisy and Tom's lack of remorse and how so many people used Gatsby.