

Personification

Personification is a kind of figurative language that attributes human thoughts, actions, characteristics or emotions to something that is not human.

1. Choose one of the objects pictured below.

2. What are four things that humans do that could be applied to the object you chose? Write four verbs on the lines.

3. Write a paragraph personifying the object. Use the verbs you listed as a starting point. Add other human characteristics.

