

Is It a Need or a Want?

Read each scenario. Is it about a want or a need? Write your answer on the line. Explain.

Rachel doesn't like her Android phone. She says that the iPhone has better emojis. She asks her parents to get her an iPhone to replace her Android.

Jill isn't feeling well. She has a cough and a sore throat. Her mother keeps her home from school and tucks her onto the sofa. Jill asks her mother if she can have a bowl of hot soup for breakfast.

Jack is hungry. His stomach is growling. When he and his father stop by the grocery store, he asks he father to buy him some candy.
