

Latin Roots

Directions: Read the clues. Look for the word parts that are the bold-faced words have in common. Fill in the blanks with the Latin roots.

1. Latin root for know. You recognize a person that you know. Going incognito means to take measures to ensure you are not recognized. Cognition is the mental action of acquiring knowledge and understanding through thought.

Latin root for know is

3. Latin root for farming. Agriculture means the management of land. Anything that is agrarian has to do with the management of land. Agribusiness is making money through the use of land.

Latin root for farming is

2. Latin root for father. The male head of a family is known as a patriarch. A paternity test determines who a child's father is. A man who is paternal acts in a fatherly way.

Latin root for father is _____ or

4. Latin root for foot. Someone who walks is called a pedestrian. Bicycle pedals are pushed with your feet. A biped is a creature who walks on two feet.

Latin root for foot is

GREEK

LATIN