

Indefinite Plural Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun.

DIRECTIONS: Read each sentence. Choose an indefinite plural pronoun that can replace each underlined word or words.

most	some	both	few
others	many	several	all

1. Many ducks were crossing the road. Every duck crossed safely.
2. Only two people in line got impatient.
3. A lot of the job listings I look at don't pay enough.
4. I like many fruits. I don't like some fruits.
5. I have appointments on three days this week.
6. I have two sisters. My two sisters are doctors.
7. I admire my students. Almost all of my students work hard.
8. Gina needed money. I gave her money.