

Name _____

Anecdotes

Whose Anecdote Is It?

Match each short anecdote to the person who is most likely telling it.

- When I was growing up, we were one of the last people in town to get a television set.

a veterinarian
- About fifteen years ago, I had five dogs. They could make a racket. But when there was a string of burglaries in the neighborhood, my house never got robbed. I put it down to my alarm system!

a neighbor
- Once a woman brought in a dog who had eaten through one of the walls in her house. When I operated on him to remove the nail he had swallowed, I also found a ring and a butterfly clip!

a grandmother