

ANSWERS

Point of View

can be first, second, or third person third person point of view is supposed to be told from the POV of the author

Both Persona and Point of View

both are the perspective from which a story is told can both be first person can both be a character in the story

Persona

a narrative point of view distinct from the author is always first person is always a character in the story