

ANSWERS

Exposition

Augie Pullman starts school after many surgeries during his childhood to correct facial differences.

Rising Action

Augie makes friends and also has difficulties with some of the other students. A misunderstanding strains his friendships.

Climax

On a school trip to camp, Jack and some of the other boys defend Augie.

Falling Action

Searching for Augie's lost hearing aid; the precepts are introduced in class.

Resolution

Augie finally feels normal. He wins the student of the year award.