

Connotation and Denotation

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite each sentence, replacing the neutral bold word with a synonym that has a negative connotation.

1. Roger is always very confident around others.
2. Kyle is curious about everything.
3. Aaron is a very different child.
4. Jane is happy today.
5. I tend to be very choosy about what I eat.
6. My sister works for an elderly man.
7. Liam is always talking.
8. This neighborhood is affordable.