

Main Idea

Bobo was a blue alligator who lived in a swamp in Florida. He was the friendliest animal in the swamp and all the other animals like him. The birds that lived in the swamp would come to visit Bobo every morning Bobo would open his mouth and the birds would hop into it and clean the food scraps out of Bobo's teeth. Bobo was always patient and he never snapped his jaws on them. The turtles in the swamp would come to visit Bobo in the afternoon. Bobo would crouch down as low as he could and let them crawl up onto his bumpy blue back. Then he would slide into the water and let the turtles take a ride around the swamp on his back. Even the fish in the swamp liked Bobo. They swam back and forth in between Bobo's legs while he was swimming.
