

What Do You Know About The Food Chain

Across

- 3. Plants and animals are ___ on one another for their very survival.
- 5. ___ eat plants, insects, and other animals.
- 7. All the energy in the food chain comes from the ___.
- 9. ___ are animals that eat herbivores.
- 11. Plants make their own food using water and sunlight through a process called ___.
- 12. Every organism must ___ to survive.
- 13. Every living ___ is part of a food chain.

Down

- 1. Animals are ___ because they don't produce energy, they use the energy made by the producers when they eat plants.
- 2. ___ are the producers in the food chain.
- 4. Plants draw ___ from the soil in which they live.
- 6. Animals that eat plants are called ___.
- 8. ___ are organisms that eat dead plants and animals and return their nutrients to the soil.
- 10. The term ___ describes the relationship between different organisms with regards to who eats what (or who).