

ANSWERS

Advocacy

Public support or suggestion of a change that is in the best interest of someone or something

Focuses on listening

Works within the system

Both Advocacy and Activism

Both want positive change

Both are public

Activism

believing strongly in political or social change and taking part in activities (like protests) intended to try and make this change happen

Focuses on making noise

Works from outside the system