

ANSWERS WILL VARY

Biographies are factual, written in third person point of view, in the past tense, and use formal language. Events are arranged in chronological order and include dates.