

ANSWERS WILL VARY

Guilt is deeply personal and present regardless of whether or not anyone else knows of the act for which a person feels guilt. It cannot be escaped.