

ANSWERS

1. 1773
2. to bail out the floundering East India Company, an important company in the British economy
3. It gave the East India Company a monopoly on the importation and sale of tea in the colonies.
4. the tax on tea that went to the British government without them having any representation in Parliament
5. On December 16, 1773, Colonists disguised as Native Americans boarded East India Company ships and dumped their entire cargo of tea into the harbor.
6. They passed a series of harsh measures intended to suppress the Colonists' opposition to the British government.