

Name _____

Inauguration

TRUE OR FALSE

1. Inauguration Day in the United States is the day on which the president-elect officially becomes the president. _____

2. Inauguration day happens every year on the 20th of January. _____

3. Inauguration day activities are largely governed by tradition. _____

4. The only things about inauguration that are actually written in the U.S. Constitution are the inauguration date and the oath the new President must take in order to assume the office. _____

5. Inauguration Day coincides with the anniversary of the day the Constitution went into effect in 1789. _____

6. The 20th Amendment to the Constitution, ratified on January 23, 1933, changed the dates on which presidential terms began and ended. _____

7. Inauguration Day has been on January 20th since George Washington's first inauguration in 1789. _____

8. Franklin Delano Roosevelt is the only president to be inaugurated on a day other than January 20th. _____