

Name _____ International Space Station

International Space Station

What are some of the challenges faced by the people who designed and built the International Space Station?

If you were one of the designers of the ISS, what do you think you would enjoy the most about your job?

What would you want to include on the ISS to help the astronauts feel at home?

What part of your job do you think would be the most difficult?
