The Non-fiction Premise

The premise is the starting point of every writing project. It is the succinct expression of a complete idea of what the work will be about. For nonfiction, a premise is a two or three sentence statement containing what the book is about (i.e., the need and the proposed solution).

1. What is your topic?

2. What is the need to write about this topic?

3. What is your proposed solution to the need?

4. What is your work about? Write the premise here.
