

How to Boil an Egg

DIRECTIONS: Read the story. Then put the events in the correct sequence.

"Everyone should know how to boil an egg," Jenna's mother announced one morning. Jenna and her brother look at her in surprise.

"Aren't you going to make us breakfast?" Jenna's brother Phillip asked.

"Today, you will make your own breakfast," Mom said. "Jenna, get the eggs out of the refrigerator. Phillip, get a saucepan and fill it with water." They did as they were told. "Now turn the eye on high, and set the saucepan on the eye. Jenna, choose three eggs and drop them gently into the water." The kids did as they were told. Soon the water began to boil. "Watch the time," Jenna's mother said. "When they have boiled for ten minutes, they will be ready.

Ten minutes later, Mother told Phillip to turn off the eye. They let the water cool down enough to be able to get the eggs. They ate the eggs with toast. They were delicious!

____ Jenna gets the eggs.

____ Jenna's mother said, "Everyone should know how to boil an egg."

____ Jenna puts the eggs in the water.

____ They ate the eggs with toast.

____ Phillip fills a saucepan with water.

____ Mother says Jenna and Phillip will make their own breakfast.

____ The water boils for ten minutes.

____ They let the water cool.