

ANSWERS

The preamble provides the context for the Constitution by clearly laying out what the Founding Fathers intended to achieve with this document.

union, peace, freedom, justice, welfare, defense

parallelism

Madison uses parallelism when listing what the country will do to create a more perfect union.