

ANSWERS

1. a mad scientist who performs experiments to make animals more like human beings.
2. the novel deals with themes of cruelty and animal rights
3. We can only make animals like ourselves to a point; eventually their true nature prevails
4. anthropomorphism is used to highlight the cruelty of vivisection