

Conjunctions in Compound Sentences

DIRECTIONS: Choose the sentence that uses a conjunction that makes sense.

1. A. I slept well, so I am still tired.
B. I slept well, but I am still tired.

2. A. I woke up early, nor I got a lot done.
B. I woke up early, and I got a lot done.

3. A. It will be a busy day, so we should get started.
B. It will be a busy day, yet we should get started.

4. A. I read that book, and I saw that movie.
B. I read that book, but I saw that movie.

5. A. I'm not allowed to have a dog, but I have a cat.
B. I'm not allowed to have a dog, and I have a cat.

6. A. Summer's here, and we're going to have a lot of fun.
B. Summer's here, but we're going to have a lot of fun.

7. A. There are no beans in the fridge, but there are some in the garden.
B. There are no beans in the fridge, so there are some in the garden.

