

Transitions for Effect/Consequence

Transition words are used in a sentence to connect two ideas. They join clauses, sentences, paragraphs, or entire sections of writing together to show a relationship between them. Different transition words signal different kinds of relationships. One kind of relationship that transition words can signal between ideas is effect or consequence.

DIRECTIONS: Find a sentence in your draft paper that uses a transition to signal effect or consequence. Rewrite the sentence using each of the transition words below.
